MARRIAGE AND DEATH NOTICES FROM THE CITY
GAZETTE

Compiled by MABEL L. WEBBER

Married on Saturday evening, Mr. John M. Ebrick, to Miss Wightman, both of this City.

Died, on Wednesday the 30th ultimo, at his plantation in St. James, Santee, William Douxsaint, esq. in the 34th year of his age a gentleman of agreeable manners and disposition, which endeared him to a numerous and respectable circle of acquaintances. (Monday Jan. 4, 1796.)

Married, on Thursday evening last, Mr. David Bell, Merchant to Miss Sarah Lanneau, niece of Mr. Basil Lanneau, both of this city.

Died, on the 27th Ultimo, after a short and violent illness, at his plantation in the state of Georgia, Roger Parker Saunders, Esq. (Tuesday, Jan. 5, 1796.)

Died, on Saturday evening last, in the 65th year of his age, regretted by a numerous acquaintance, Walter Hall, esq. He had long labored under a lingering indisposition, which he bore with a fortitude and resignation worthy of imitation.

Died, on Saturday last, Mrs. Andrews, wife of Capt. Moses Andrews, of this city. (Monday, Jan. 11, 1796.)

On Sunday last the body of Mr. Barend Moses Spitzer was found on Sullivan's Island; he had been missing for upwards of ten days past. (Tuesday, Jan: 12, 1796.)

Married, last evening, by the Rev. Mr. Parker, William M. Parker, esq. attorney at law, to the agreeable and accomplished Miss Sarah Lightwood, daughter of Edward Lightwood, esq. of this city, late merchant. (Thursday, Jan. 14, 1796.)

Married on Friday last, by the Rev. Mr. Jenkins, Mr. Francis Lecat, musician, to Mrs. Rachel Lopez, confectioner, late of St. Domingo, but now both of this city.

Died at the Island of Jamaica, at Montego Bay, in the month of August last, Mrs. Mary Courtauld, wife of Mr. Samuel Courtauld, merchant, and late of this city; the generous disposition and benevolent heart of this lady, make her death much lamented by a numerous circle of acquaintance and relatives.

Died, on Friday, the first instant, at Combabee, Mrs. Day, the amiable consort of William Day, esq: she has left six young children to lament her untimely fate. (Monday, Jan: 18, 1796.)

Died, on Friday evening last, Mr. John Major, of this city, a young man deservedly esteemed by all who knew him. (Tuesday, Jan: 19, 1796.)

Married, yesterday forenoon, by the Rev. Dr. Buist, Mr. John Jacks, merchant, to Mrs. Ann Wilson, widow of Dr. George Wilson of Goose Creek, deceased. (Friday, Jan. 22, 1796.)

Married, last Sunday afternoon, by the Rev: Peter Levrier, Mr. William Fair, to Lady Margaret Frances Babier de la Baume.

Died, on Monday, the 15th ultimo, ay his seat in 'Abbeville county, the hon. Patrick Calhoun, esq. in the 69th year of his age. He had served as a member of the legislature in this state for many years. Was the first person who ever acted in that capacity, from that part of the state in which he resided; and was a member of the senate at its last session. During the past summer he was attacked with a lingering fever, which much enfeebled his constitution. On his return from Columbia, he was seized with a bleeding at the nose, which exhausted him gradually till his life came to a close. He was a friend to virtue and piety; and a foe to vice in every form. The fidelity and patriotism which he exhibited as a public character, are too well known and acknowledged, by most of his numerous acquaintance, to need any encomium or eulogium.

Died, on the 28th of February last, in New Port, Rhode Island, Capt. Joseph Brown; he was a master of a vessel out of this port for a number of years past. (Monday, March 7, 1796.)

Married, on Wednesday evening last, by the Rev. Bishop Smith Doctor Alexander Garden, to Miss Harriet Hockley Hewie. (Saturday, March 12, 1796.)

Died, on the 9th instant, at his plantation near Beaufort, capt. John Joyner, in the 77th year of his age. He removed to this state from Frederica, in Georgia, about the year 1750. He was appointed in 1754, to command one of the scout boats employed in the then government service, in which he continued discharging his duty with vigilance, until it was deemed unnecessary to keep those boats any longer in service; from that time he became an industrious planter, until the American revolution began, in which he took a very early and active part in supporting the rights of America. Although he had several sons and a daughter, who were married, he has left no descendent but one grand son by Mrs. Smith, who was the last of his children. He was an affectionate husband and father, a kind friend, and a humane master; he has left a widow and many friends regretting his death. (Monday, March 14, 1796.)

Married, last evening by the rev. Mr. Jenkins, William M'Cord, esq. of the Wateree, to Miss Catherine Muldrop, youngest daughter of the late Christian Muldrop, esq. his Danish majesty's consul for Scotland. (Friday, March 18, 1796.)
